

VICINITY NEWS.

---

All the miners in Bell county have gone to work.

All the turnpikes in Anderson county are now free.

Robert Hankla, aged 27, died at Parksville of typhoid fever.

Wm. Shewmaker, of Mercer, was perhaps fatally shot by his own gun while hunting.

T. E. Richardson has been appointed a fireman in the Richmond postoffice at a salary of $720.

The R. N. I. & B. railroad was sold at auction at Versailles for $301,000 to D. Shanahan & Co.

Frank Wait, a brother of President George Wait, of the Somerset Banking Co., died at his home in that city.

James Gann died at Middleburg of typhoid fever after a long illness. His wife and son are down with the same disease.

Fount Prewitt shot and fatally wounded Jerry Morris in an election row at Hickorynut voting precinct in Pulaski.