

Vaughan.—The passing of Mrs. O. B. Vaughan on Thursday of last week brought deep grief to the hearts of all Somerset and Pulaski county, her death following an illness of many months, marked by intense suffering and the patient undergoing serious operations. All that a devoted husband, loving children, relatives, friends, skilled physicians, surgeons and nurses could do was done with a hope of overcoming the ravages of the fatal malady and to relieve the patient, but the relenting hand of death defeated all efforts and this lovable spirit of one of the county's esteemed women has gone to its reward in heaven, and, though the family left desolate and heartbroken she is free from suffering and pain. Deceased was the daughter of Dr. S. R. and Mary J. Owens and was born in this county 60 years ago and resided all her life in the Pisgah neighborhood. She was a faithful and consecrated member of the Presbyterian church and was always found in her place of worship when able to attend and took a very active part in church work. Funeral services were held at the residence on Monticello pike Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. H. Hopper, of Louisville, assisted by Rev. C. H. Talbot. Burial in city cemetery. Three daughter, Mrs. Chas. Oatts, of near Pisgah; Mrs. L. D. Shagoan, of Montana; Mrs. Raymond Stigall, Pisgah three step-daughters, Mrs. Frank Wait, Glasgow; Mrs. Arnold Curtis, Stearns; Mrs. Earl Curtis, Somerset; one brother, Clarence Owens, of Oklahoma City, Okla.; two sisters, Mrs. J. F. VanArsdale, Harrodsburg, and Mrs. F. E. Tibbals, this city, survive. Among the out of town people attending the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs.

Marcus Hail, Russell Springs; Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Goggin and family, Danville; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Oatts, Danville; Sam Owens, Hustonville; Mrs. Kate Stigall and son, Danville; Miss Mary Glass, Danville; Mr. and Mrs. John Goggin, Danville; Misses Jessie Newell, Mary Lynn and Fronie Fox, Stanford; Mr. and Mrs. John Denney and daughter, Amelia, Bronston; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Saunders, Bronston; Mrs. Zora Fitzpatrick, Danville; Mrs. Logan Spoonamore, Danville, and Mrs. Harry Walt Burnside.—Somerset Journal.